

Frequently Asked Question

As a benefit to our participants, U.S. Soccer Development Academy has excess insurance coverage in place to cover remainders left unpaid by health coverage or to help cover medical costs for participants without access to a health insurance plan. We know that insurance can be confusing so below are Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) for the U.S. Soccer Development Academy excess coverage to assist you in the event of an injury.

Q: Who is covered?

A: Participants that are injured as a result of participating in a U.S. Soccer Development Academy activity.

Q: What is a U.S. Soccer Development Academy activity?

A: A U.S. Soccer Development Academy activity is an activity where participants are registered, are fully compliant with U.S. Soccer DA regulations and participant's fees are paid.

Q: Who is the insurance carrier?

A: The insurance carrier is Ace American Insurance Company

Q: If I have health or other insurance coverage, should I file a claim?

A: If you have primary insurance, you MUST file a claim with that insurance first. This policy is an excess/secondary accident medical policy and is designed as a supplement to your medical insurance.

Q: Will filing a claim with my health insurance cause my policy premiums (the cost to buy insurance) to increase?

A: Under the "Affordable Care Act" policy premiums are not based on the amount of claims submitted but rather on your residence, age and quality of health (ex: smoker vs non-smoker).

Q: My primary insurance coverage has co-insurance (patient responsibility), how does this insurance respond?

A: This policy will supplement the unpaid remaining allowable charges/co-insurance once the deductible is met by paying these up to the policy limit within the policy terms.

Q: If I do not have primary insurance, how will this insurance respond?

A: If you do not have any other coverage this insurance will become primary and pay allowable charges up to the policy limits.

Q: Do I have a deductible or coinsurance/copay under the U.S. Soccer Development Academy policy?

A: There is a $1,000 deductible which must be met first. Once the deductible is met a 20% coinsurance applies on the remaining covered amount.

Q: Are there exclusions to this insurance coverage?

A: Yes, there are exclusions. Please contact HSR at 800-328-1114 for a list of exclusions

Q: Is illness covered under this policy?

A: No, this is an Accident policy only. Only medical treatment as a result of injury from a U.S. Soccer Development Academy scheduled event will be covered.

Frequently Asked Question

Q: How do I report and injury?

A: You must complete and sign the Participant Claim Form. Once completed, this form should be sent by email to daclaims@fairlygroup.com or faxed to 806-377-1859. Injuries must be reported within 72 hours of the injury for coverage to be in effect.

Q: How long to have to receive treatment?

A: You must have initial treatment within 90 days of your injury for coverage to be in effect. There is a 52 week benefit period that begins at the date of your injury.

Q: Are there any limits for services?

A: There is a $1,500 limit for physical therapy services.

Q: What do I need to do before I receive medical care?

A: For non-emergent care please contact your health plan for a list of in-network providers in your area. If you do not have health insurance please contact Fairly Group at 800-530-4809 for a network provider in your area.

Q: Do services require authorization or approval?

A: If you do not have health insurance the following services require approval prior to service: Surgeries, MRI's, CT Scans, Durable medical equipment and physical therapy

Q: How can I avoid getting medical bills sent to me directly?

A: If you have health insurance or any other coverage please supply all providers that treat you for a related injury with a copy of your health insurance and a copy of the "US Soccer Claims Submission Form" that you received from U.S. Soccer. If you do not have health insurance or any other coverage please supply a copy of the "US Soccer Claims Submission Form" to all providers that treat you for an event related injury. This will allow the providers to bill the insurance directly and should prevent any bills/invoices from being sent to you directly.

Q: How do I follow up on my claim status?

A: For any questions about your claim, please contact HSR at 800-328-1114.
